ALTERNATE DISPUTE RESOLUTION AGREEMENT

The Employee whose signature is affixed hereto recognize that there are many advantages to using mediation and arbitration to settle any and all legal disputes and claims, including, but not limited to, all those arising from or in the course of employment. The Employee agrees that for many reasons, lawsuits and court actions are disadvantageous to both and that the many benefits and advantages to all parties include: speed of process, cost effectiveness, privacy and confidentiality, use of specialized and experienced decision-makers, and complete due process and fairness to all parties.

In consideration of these many benefits, the continuation of the employment relationship, and by other agreements, the parties hereto mutually agree that this document ("Agreement") shall govern the resolution of all claims and disputes between them. The parties further agree that this Agreement shall include all such claims and disputes involving Employer's customers and clients, administrative employees, all agents and other employees, all subsidiaries, affiliates and parent companies and any other person or entity that has agreed to this process.

THEREFORE, Employer and Employee agree that any claim or dispute between them or against the persons or entities named above, whether related to the employment relationship or otherwise, including those created by practice, common law, court decision, or statute, now existing or created later, including any related to allegations of violations of state or federal statutes related to discrimination, and all disputes about the validity of the arbitration clause, shall be exclusively resolved, utilizing a two-step Alternate Dispute Resolution (ADR) process, as follows:

1) First, through mediation utilizing the Rules and Mediator provided by Dispute Systems, Inc., a neutral entity, or its successor; and

2) Failing settlement by mediation, the parties agree that all claims and disputes, including those of jurisdiction and arbitrability, shall be resolved by neutral binding arbitration conducted by the National Arbitration Forum (NAF), under the NAF Code of Procedure in effect at the time any claim is made, this Dispute Resolution Agreement and the Arbitration Rules of Dispute Systems, Inc., or its successor, which are incorporated herein by reference. The parties stipulate that this Agreement involves transactions in interstate commerce, is subject to the Federal Arbitration Act, invoke its jurisdiction and agree that any award of the arbitrator(s) may be entered as a judgment in any court of competent jurisdiction.

This is a legal document and any questions or concerns about it should be discussed with legal counsel of Employee's choice at his/her expense. By signing this Agreement, the parties are giving up any right they may have to sue each other. Any right to trial by jury or judicial appeal is expressly waived.

This Agreement incorporates the entire Agreement of the parties and supersedes and replaces all prior Agreements, written or oral, if any, and may not be changed, except in writing and signed by all parties. This Agreement does not create a contract of employment or in any way alter the "at-will" status of the employment relationship. This Agreement survives the employment relationship.

You, the Employee, in signing below, do individually and on behalf of your heirs, successors, spouse, beneficiaries, administrators, curators, tutors, representatives and assigns, certify that you have actually read, understand and accept all of the terms, conditions and provisions contained in this Agreement.

Form W-4 (2017)

Purpose. Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. Consider completing a new Form W-4 each year and when your personal or financial situation changes.

Exemption from withholding. If you are exempt, complete only lines 1, 2, 3, 4, and 7 and sign the form to validate it. Your exemption for 2017 expires February 15, 2018. See Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Note: If another person can claim you as a dependent on his or her tax return, you can't claim exemption from withholding if your total income exceeds $1,050 and includes more than $350 of unearned income (for example, interest and dividends).

Exceptions. An employee may be able to claim exemption from withholding even if the employee is a dependent, if the employee:

- Is age 65 or older,
- Is blind, or
- Will claim adjustments to income; tax credits; or itemized deductions, on his or her tax return.

The exceptions don't apply to supplemental wages greater than $1,000,000.

Basic instructions. If you aren't exempt, complete the Personal Allowances Worksheet below. The worksheets on page 2 further adjust your withholding allowances based on itemized deductions, certain credits, adjustments to income, or two-earners/multiple jobs situations.

Complete all worksheets that apply. However, you may claim fewer (or zero) allowances. For regular wages, withholding must be based on allowances you claimed and may not be a flat amount or percentage of wages.

Head of household. Generally, you can claim head of household filing status on your tax return only if you are unmarried and pay more than 50% of the costs of keeping up a home for yourself and your dependent(s) or other qualifying individuals. See Pub. 501, Exemptions, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information, for information.

Tax credits. You can take projected tax credits into account in figuring your allowable number of withholding allowances. Credits for child or dependent care expenses and the child tax credit may be claimed using the Personal Allowances Worksheet below. See Pub. 505 for information on converting your other credits into withholding allowances.

Nonwage income. If you have a large amount of nonwage income, such as interest or dividends, consider making estimated tax payments using Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals. Otherwise, you may owe additional tax. If you have pension or annuity income, see Pub. 505 to find out if you should adjust your withholding on Form W-4 or W-4P.

Two earners or multiple jobs. If you have a working spouse or more than one job, figure the total number of allowances you are entitled to claim on all jobs using worksheets from only one Form W-4. Your withholding usually will be most accurate when all allowances are claimed on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job and zero allowances are claimed on the others. See Pub. 505 for details.

Nonresident alien. If you are a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Check your withholding. After your Form W-4 takes effect, use Pub. 505 to see how the amount you are having withheld compares to your projected total tax for 2017. See Pub. 505, especially if your earnings exceed $130,000 (Single) or $180,000 (Married).

Future developments. Information about any future developments affecting Form W-4 (such as legislation enacted after we release it) will be posted at www.irs.gov/w4.

Privacy Act and Paperwork Reduction Act Notice. We ask for the information on this form to carry out the Internal Revenue laws of the United States. Internal Revenue Code sections 3402(f)(2) and 6109 and their regulations require you to provide this information; your employer uses it to determine your federal income tax withholding. Failure to provide a properly completed form will result in your being treated as a single person who claims no withholding allowances; providing fraudulent information may subject you to penalties. Routine uses of this information include giving it to the Department of Justice for civil and criminal litigation; to cities, states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. commonwealths and possessions for use in administering their tax laws; and to the Department of Health and Human Services for use in the National Directory of New Hires. We may also disclose this information to other countries under a tax treaty, to federal and state agencies to enforce federal nontax criminal laws, or to federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies to combat terrorism.

You are not required to provide the information requested on a form that is subject to the Paperwork Reduction Act unless the form displays a valid OMB control number. Books or records relating to a form or its instructions must be retained as long as their contents may become material in the administration of any Internal Revenue law. Generally, tax returns and return information are confidential, as required by Code section 6103.

The average time and expenses required to complete and file this form will vary depending on individual circumstances. For estimated averages, see the instructions for your income tax return.

If you have suggestions for making this form simpler, we would be happy to hear from you. See the instructions for your income tax return.
